

PROPOSAL SUBMISSION

United Association for Labor Education (UALE) annual conference
April 4-7, 2018, Seattle, Washington

Conference Theme:

Shared Struggle, Strategy and Success! Labor Education Takes on Today's Challenges

Please complete all required fields to submit your session for consideration by the conference planning committee. Only proposals submitted using this form will be considered.

Session Format (check one):

Demonstration of Curriculum and/or Teaching Technique

Present labor education curriculum and techniques in an interactive manner. Use of popular education is encouraged. Facilitators should be prepared to offer participants copies of their materials.

Panel Session

A group of 3-5 presenters who collaborate in advance of the conference will present multiple perspectives on a topic relevant to the conference theme.

Paper Presentation

Presenting (not reading) a paper you have written relevant to the conference theme. Your submission may be put alongside other papers with similar themes to be presented during the same session.

Performance Arts

Performances of theater, music, readings of fiction or poetry, or other performance pieces relevant to the conference theme.

Plenary

While the UALE Executive Board is responsible for the 2-3 plenary sessions that happen during the conference, we invite proposals for plenary sessions.

Poster/Display/Visual Arts

Multi-media pieces on the conference theme will be on exhibit. They may not be presented in a specific session, but will be displayed throughout the conference. Electronic arts are welcome; however, the producer must provide the technology needed for the display.

Roundtable Discussion

One or two facilitators moderate a discussion on a topic or issue relevant to the conference theme. This does not include formal presentations, but may include structured discussion activities like small group work.

Video Showing

Propose to have the screening of a video built into the conference program. Ideally these videos would be a maximum of 60 minutes long.

Session Title

Main Contact

Name _____

Organization/Affiliation _____

Mailing Address _____

E-mail Address _____ Phone _____

Will your session include other presenters? Yes No
If so, please list them here:

Note: You are responsible for securing commitments from any co-presenters.

Explain how your proposed session will help to develop the conference theme and describe your background with the subject (300-500 words):

Provide a description of your session (maximum of 100 words) to be published in the conference program:

Bilingual track (optional)

UALE will provide simultaneous interpretation during select sessions. Please check here if you are interested in having your session be part of the bilingual (Spanish/English) "track."

Please refer my proposal to one of the UALE Working Groups (optional):

The eight UALE Working Groups help to develop the conference program. Submissions that are supported by a Working Group are more likely to be accepted. If you would like your proposal to be reviewed by a Working Group, check the one you believe is most appropriate:

Central Labor Council

Online Education

Immigration/Globalization

Popular Education

K-14 Labor Education

Worker Writers

Labor Film Documentarians

Young Workers and Activists

How to submit this form

Save this document with the name of your session, followed by the name of the primary submitter, as the title.

E-mail the completed form, with "2018 UALE conference submission" in the subject line, to ualeconference@gmail.com

Deadline for submissions is November 30, 2017. Timely submissions are essential. Late proposals cannot be considered.

Questions?

Email ualeconference@gmail.com and a member of the conference planning committee will respond. Thanks for your interest and participation!