43rd UALE Northeast Summer School for Women in Unions and Worker Organizations

July 21st - 25th, 2018 | Cornell University, ILR School

About Summer School

The 43rd UALE Northeast Regional Summer School for Women in Unions and Worker Organizations is a four-day residential program sponsored by the United Association for Labor Education. The school brings together rank-and-file members, staff, and officers of unions and workers' organizations to strengthen their knowledge and understanding of the U.S. labor movement. UALE advocates education as an essential tool to develop new activists and leaders who will grow and transform the labor movement.

The Program

All students attend classes designed to teach and improve leadership skills. In addition, each student chooses two workshops, which meet daily. Summer school instructors are union officers and staff and labor educators from universities and unions. Experts on current union issues are invited as guest speakers and will share their knowledge throughout the week.

We are currently working to finalize workshops for Summer 2018. Please visit our website for the latest information. Workshops that have been offered in the past and that may be offered again include:

- Basic & Advanced Grievance Handling
- Collective Bargaining
- Economics for the 99%
- Effective Coalition Building
- Immigration & Immigrant Rights
- Innovative Organizing Strategies
- Internal & External Organizing
- Labor & Social Justice Actions
- Labor Law
- Mobilizing for Political & Legislative Action
- Public Speaking
- Social Media
- Strategic Planning
- Working with the Media
