

UALE would like to recognize past winners of achievement awards:

2012

Outstanding Contribution – University of Wisconsin School for Workers/Corliss Olson

Lifetime Achievement– Elise Bryant

Special Achievement – Anne Feeney

Best Book– Trampling out the Vintage, by Frank Bardacke

Best Labor Studies Journal Article– “Bargaining for Rights in the Luxury City: The Strategic Dilemmas of Organized Labor’s Urban Turn.” by Ian Thomas MacDonald

Exceptional Service – Tess Ewing

2011

Outstanding Contribution – José La Luz

Lifetime Achievement– Bruce Nissen

Best Book– Stayin Alive, by Jefferson Cowie

Best Labor Studies Journal Article- "Taking on Corporate Bullies: Cintas, Laundry Workers, and Organizing in the 1930s and Twenty-First Century," Vol. 35(4) by Jenny Carson

2010

Outstanding Contribution– Kent Wong

Lifetime Achievement– Sue Schurman

Best Book– Going Down Jericho Road by Michael K. Honey

Staley: The Fight for a New American Labor Movement, by Steven Ashby and C.J. Hawking

Best Labor Studies Journal Article– “The Crisis of Social Democratic Unionism: The Opening up of Civil Society and the Prospects for Union Renewal in the United Kingdom, France and Germany” 34, 4 (Dec. 2009) by Martin Upchurch, Graham Taylor and Andy Mathers

2009

Outstanding Contribution– Judy Ancel

Lifetime Achievement– Charlie Micallef

Best Book– Solidarity Divided, by Bill Fletcher Jr. and Fernando Gaspas

Best Labor Studies Journal Article – “Contending Rationality, Leadership, and Collective Struggle: The 2006 Justice for Janitors Campaign at the University of Miami” by Jason Albright

2008

Outstanding Contribution– Charley Richardson

Best Book– Education for Changing Unions, by Bev Burke et al.

Best Labor Studies Journal Article– “Hospital Speedups and the Fiction of a Nursing Shortage” LSJ Vol. 30, No. 1 (Spring 2005) by Gordon Lafer